£36,000pa

PAFRAS works with asylum seekers, refugees and the wider community to counter the effects of destitution. The organisation has been operating successfully for over 14 years and offers a lifeline to asylum seekers who are experiencing hardship. We are a small and passionate team working in a challenging environment with the support of communities, partners, an incredible volunteer team and a dedicated supporter base.

Our work has three main strands;

- immediate humanitarian relief and emergency support
- OISC accredited advice and advocacy aimed at assisting service users to make lasting improvements to their situation
- mental health and well-being assessments and support

PAFRAS has undergone a significant period of change over the last three years, strengthening our core activities and building both new contacts and new partnerships. We are now at the point to embed our services and practices before we move into the next phase of the organisation's development.

We are looking for a talented and inspirational Director with the strategic vision to lead the organisation into the future, ensuring our work is relevant, responsive to the needs of our service-users and well-informed.
